forty years in prison may be the fate of Thomas, alias "Red" Dugan, the Jersey City burglar who shot at the wife of Rev. J. C. J. Petersen in that city, as told in the Journal yesterday. The charges on which he was held for trial by Justice Nevin yes. Charles E. Simms, referring to an excess T terday carry penalties aggregating that sive telephone charge, which was the basis period.

When the court proceedings were ended Mrs. Petersen was accosted on her way sponsible for telephone rates in New York from the court room by Mrs. Timothy Mc-Dermott, a sister of Dugan.

"I'm glad my brother's aim was not more forty years of age, of No. 399 Forest ave-

This retort for some reason angered Mrs.
MeDermott, who is blond, pretty and plump. She attempted to strike the domine's wife, but a bystander prevented her.
Then she threatened him in shrill tones.
Police Commissioner West witnessed the affair, and called several policemen to arrest the woman. The latter and several sympathizing female friends were taken into court, soundly lectured and let go.

Much opposition has been aroused against the bill introduced on Friday by Assemblyman Sullivan, providing that "a person intending to manufacture tobacco cigarettes shall first obtain a license to do so," among the tobacco dealers in this city, who own machines for making cigarettes, and who are in the habit of manufacturing the cigarettes required for their trade.

are in the habit of manufacturing the cigarettes required for their trade.

The tobacconists dislike the wording of the bill which specifies "a person, etc.," instead of "manufacturers of, etc." They declare that the measure is almed specifically at their interests, and that the license will either be placed at a high figure or that the red tape connected with the taking out of such a license will be involved so that the small dealers will be involved so that the small dealers will be confused and forced to give up this feature of their business, leaving the field entirely to the trust.

Hundreds of tobacco dealers in this State have elgarette making machinery, and besides supplying their own wants also supply their neighbors, who prefer this class of cigarette to those put out by the American Tobacco Company.

The tobacco dealers allege that the trust has for some time been seeking an effective means of driving the small dealers from the business in order to do away with this competition, and that this measure was introduced at the instance of the trust.

Assemblyman Snillvan denles that it is a trust measure, but gives no satisfactory explanation in defence of it.

HIS LAST COSTUME

MADE FOR DEATH.

Fritz Roemer, a Well-Known Theatrical Costumer, Commits Suicide in Presence of His Family.

Because of business troubles Fritz T. B. Roemer, a German, fifty-three years old, of No. 489 East Twenty-eighth street, Flatbush, early yesterday morning put a pistol against his right temple, pulled the trigger and died almost instantly in the presence of his wife and six children, just as they

of his wife and six children, just as they were about to sit down to breakfast.
One of the children, Lillie, only seven years old, ran to the home of Dr. T. B. Hegeman, on Newkirk avenue, shouted, "Papa has shot himself." and then fainted. The physician picked up the little one in his arms and carried her back to the house. Roemer was a theatrical costumer, doing business at No. S Union square. Business roubles had made him melancholy and he had frequently spoken of suicide. On Saturday he was served with an execution in a suit for $166.43, in favor of William Schwind, a costume manufacturer on St. Mark's place. Roemer supplied costumes to almost all the leading actresses and actors in the metropolis.
